FOREWORD

The work done by citizens serving on Boards, Commissions, and Committees is a vital part of the work of La Porte City government. Members are appointed by the City Council. Members have an opportunity to affect public policy, gain access to the highest levels of City government, and to develop networks. Any citizen interested in serving on a board, commission or committee should request a Handbook and application from the City Secretary's Office. In addition to submitting a completed application, it may be helpful to notify the Mayor or your Councilmember(s) of your interest.

This publication provides a listing of Boards, Commissions, and Committees presently operating in the City of La Porte. The directory is designed to educate the citizens of La Porte about opportunities available for community service. The City Council encourages participation of qualified citizens and is committed to cultural diversity on all appointments. Questions regarding board, commission, committee service or volunteering should be directed to the City Secretary's Office at 281-470-5021.

In recognition of the important civic commitment of any citizen serving the City, we have prepared this handbook to assist members in performing their duties.

It is our hope that your service to the City of La Porte will be both rewarding and fulfilling. Again, thank you for your willingness to serve.

Sincerely,

Louis R. Rigby
Mayor

DEFINITIONS AND LEGAL LIABILITY

Boards, Committees and Commissions Defined. La Porte has two types of boards, committees and commissions (hereinafter “boards”): ADVISORY and DECISION-MAKING. Additionally, there are boards whose membership is appointed by the City Council and are separate legal entities. The listing of each board in this manual provides a general description of each type of board, as well as any eligibility requirements as defined by City ordinance or other law.

Advisory Commissions and Boards. These boards advise the La Porte City Council on public policy. They play a very important role in city government by providing the City Council with creative ideas, feedback from the community, and by serving as a sounding board for proposed public policy.

It is important to remember that the role of advisory boards is not to set public policy but to advise City Council.

Name

Airport Advisory Board

Animal Shelter Advisory Committee

Chapter 172 Employee Retiree
And Insurance Benefits Committee

Drainage and Flooding Committee
Council members only; 1 Alternate

Fiscal Affairs Committee
Council members only; 1 Alternate

Decision-Making Boards and Commissions are “quasi-judicial” and are governed by state law. Determinations by a Decision Making Board are potentially subject to review by the courts. Decision Making Boards also advise the City Council on public policy. Members serving on Decision Making boards will take an oath of office and are subject to the Texas Open Meetings Act, the Public Information Act, and ethics laws.

Name

Planning and Zoning Commission

Zoning Board of Adjustment

Civil Service Commission

Fire Code Review Committee

Fire Fighters Pension Board

Building Codes Appeal Board

La Porte Health Authority

Separate Legal Entities. Some Boards are separate entities, corporations or political bodies from the City; although the City may appoint the memberships to these Boards. These Boards are usually established under the provisions of a state statute that will set forth the functions, duties, responsibilities, and limitations of the corporation or political body.

The Boards and Commissions that are separate entities from the City, and whose memberships are appointed by the City Council are listed below.

Name

Harris County Appraisal District
Representative

La Porte Area Water Authority

La Porte Development Corporation

La Porte Reinvestment Zone #1

La Porte Redevelopment Authority

Southeast Texas Housing Finance
Corporation Board

The members appointed to these Boards and Commissions oversee the operation of an organization as a Board of Directors would a corporation. The City of La Porte has no or little authority over members except for their appointment; and therefore, the City has limited liability for their actions. Board members will find that the organization to which they have been appointed will provide much of the information needed. The state statute establishing the organization, the articles of incorporation and the bylaws of the organization will provide a great deal of information.

Ad Hoc Committees and City Representatives. Appointed by City Council to investigate a particular end or purpose or represent the City at meetings. Ad Hoc Committees study and research a specific issue or attend a meeting and report its findings and recommendations to the Council.

It is important to remember that the role of Ad Hoc Committees is not to set public policy but to report its findings and make recommendations to City Council.

Name

Appointed Officials are the City Manager, City Secretary, City Attorney, Municipal Judge, Alternate Judges, Election Judges and Alternate Election Judges.

Legal Liability. It is important to understand that the actions of members of the various City Boards and Commissions can subject the City to liability and subject the Board or Commission members to personal liability. Therefore, Board and Commission members are strongly encouraged to consult with the City Attorney anytime they feel their actions, while serving on such Board or Commission, may have some legal consequences. The law in this area is quite complex and requires a thorough analysis of the law and facts pertaining to each particular situation.

As a general rule, quasi-judicial officers cannot be held personally liable for erroneous acts while honestly exercising the judicial or quasi-judicial functions of their offices. The Boards and Commission members who render decisions are considered quasi-judicial officers. The problem with stating such a general rule as a proposition of law is that there will always be exceptions to the general rule. For example, if a court finds that a quasi-judicial officer performs certain functions in excess of his/her authority and such functions were not performed under a good faith assumption that the officer had the authority to act, then the officer will subject himself/herself to personal civil liability. If a person is damaged by the excessive acts of a quasi-judicial officer, then that officer will have to pay damages to the person harmed. The aggrieved person can also seek other remedies such as an injunction compelling the officer to perform or refrain from performing a particular act.

Officers of the City can also subject themselves, as well as the City, to liability if they perform their functions in a manner that denies an individual any right that is secured to that individual by the Constitution or a statute. An example of how this type of liability could arise is if an officer illegally discriminates against an individual. A City and its officers, as a governmental entity, must treat all individuals or groups equally or in the same manner unless there is a rational basis or a compelling governmental interest to treat someone or some group differently. Therefore, officers of the City should treat all individuals and groups in the same manner. If there is a question concerning whether an individual or group can be treated differently, the City Attorney should be consulted. If an officer illegally discriminates against an individual or group, that individual or group can seek monetary damages from the City and the individual officer for a violation of his rights under the state and federal civil rights statutes.

When members of City Boards and Commissions are acting in good faith and within the bounds allowed by the City ordinances, procedures, the state and federal law, the City will provide a defense for such members to the greatest extent permissible. However, if a Board or Commission member violates a criminal law while serving in his/her official capacity, the City generally will not provide that member a defense. The reason for this is if a criminal law was violated, the Board or Commission member was probably acting outside the bounds of his authority.

The above discussion is by no means intended to be comprehensive and complete discussion of legal liabilities to which the City or the Board or Commission member may be subjected. You are reminded that the City Attorney is available to the City Boards and Commissions and should be consulted on such questions.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- 1) Citizens interested in serving on a City board, commission or committee may pick up a handbook and application from the City Secretary's Office (604 West Fairmont Parkway), or may call 281-470-5022 to have a packet mailed, or may apply directly on our website. The website address is www.laportetx.gov.
- 2) Completed applications are maintained in the City Secretary's Office and provided to Mayor and City Council as positions become available.
- 3) As the terms of the board, commission or committee members expire, the Mayor and Council review applications on file for applicants who have indicated an interest in particular boards.
- 4) If you have indicated an interest in a board, commission or committee with a vacancy, the Mayor and City Council will review your application form for consideration.
- 5) The City Council will then make selections to specific boards, commissions and committees.
- 6) If you are selected, you will be notified to determine whether you wish to serve. If you agree to serve, your appointment will be confirmed at a City Council meeting.
- 7) Your application form will remain on file in the City Secretary's Office for two years and will be resubmitted to the City Council any time there is a vacancy on a board on which you have indicated an interest.
- 8) If you have an application on file and no longer wish to serve, call and notify the City Secretary's Office.

APPOINTMENT PROCESS

How Board, Commission and Committee Members are Appointed. There are times when the Mayor makes an appointment with ratification by the La Porte City Council. Most times, however, the City Council makes the appointments to La Porte's Boards, Commissions and most committees, with exception of the Civil Service Commission. The Civil Service Commission is appointed by the City Manager and confirmed by City Council. Citizens interested in being appointed are urged to obtain a Handbook and application from the City Secretary's Office at City Hall.

Notice of Appointment. After the City Council appoints a person to serve as a member of a Board, Commission or Committee, the City Secretary will notify the appointee in writing of the appointment.

Eligibility and Qualifications. The La Porte City Council seeks out the best-qualified citizens to serve on Boards, Commissions and Committees. The qualifications required to serve on a particular Board, Commission or Committee are determined by La Porte City Ordinance or by the State statute establishing the Board or Commission.

Many of the Boards, Commissions and Committees do not have specific eligibility requirements beyond residency, leaving the membership qualifications to the discretion of the La Porte City Council.

Appointments to Boards, Commissions or Committees having eligibility requirements must be made in accordance with the governing City ordinance or State statute.

APPENDIX A lists all of the Boards, Commissions or Committees having eligibility requirements and details those requirements. Board, Commission or Committee members must continue to meet eligibility requirements during the entire time that they serve on the Board, Commission or Committee. Appendix A will be maintained by the City Secretary's Office and will not require Council approval.

Oath of Office. An oath of office should be administered to all members of Decision-Making Boards and Commissions and, if appropriate, to all members of Advisory Boards and Commissions. The oath of office can be administered by the City Secretary or a Notary Public for the State of Texas. A Statement of Appointed Officer Form must be completed before the oath is administered. The necessary forms are made available in the City Secretary's Office in City Hall.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE MEMBERS OF BOARDS, COMMISSIONS, AND COMMITTEES

Conflicts of Interest. The Texas Conflicts of Interest Law, V.T.C.A., and Local Government Code Section 171.001 et seq., aimed at local officials' CONFLICT OF INTEREST was passed in 1983. Under the measure, if a local official (or his/her close relative) stands to gain a financial benefit from a matter pending before a public agency upon which the official serves, the person must publicly disclose his/her interest in such matters and then abstain from voting on it.

The Texas Conflicts of Interest Law pertains ONLY to the DECISION-MAKING BOARDS IDENTIFIED IN THIS HANDBOOK.

Definitions

- a. “Local public official” means a member of the governing body or another officer, whether elected, appointed, paid or unpaid, of any district (including a school district), county, municipality, precinct, central appraisal district, transit authority or district, or other local government entity who exercises responsibilities beyond those that are advisory in nature. (Note: Persons who exercise “responsibilities beyond those that are advisory in nature” would include, for example, the members of the Planning and Zoning Commission or the Zoning Board of Adjustments.
- b. “Business entity” means a sole proprietorship, partnership, firm, corporation, holding company, joint-stock company, receivership, trust, or any other entity recognized by law.

Substantial Interest in Business Entity

- a. For purposes of this chapter, a person has a substantial interest in a business entity if:
  - (1) the interest ownership of ten percent or more of the voting stock or shares of the business entity or ownership of $2,500 or more of the fair market value of the business entity; or
  - (2) funds received by the person from the business entity exceed ten percent of the person’s gross income for the previous year.
- b. A person has substantial interest in real property if the interest is an equitable or legal ownership with a fair market value of $2,500 or more.
- c. A local public official is considered to have a substantial interest under this section if a person related to the official within the second degree by consanguinity or affinity has a substantial interest under this section.

Prohibited Acts; Penalty

- a. Except as provided by Section 171.005 or 171.006, a local public official commits an offense if the official knowingly:
  - (1) participates in a vote or decision on a matter involving a business entity in which the official has a substantial interest if it is reasonably foreseeable that an action on the matter would confer an economic benefit on the business entity; or
  - (2) acts surety for a business entity that has work, business, or a contract with the governmental entity; oracts as surety on any official bond requirement of an officer of the governmental entity.
- b. An offense under this section is a Class A misdemeanor.

Affidavit Required

- a. If a local public official has a substantial interest in a business entity that would be peculiarly affected by an official action taken by the governing body, the official shall file, before a vote or decision on the matter, an affidavit stating the nature and extent of the interest and shall abstain from further participation in the matter.
- b. The affidavit must be filed with the official record keeper of the governmental entity.

Contract Authorized

The governing body of a governmental entity may contract for the purchase of services of personal property with a business entity in which a member of the governing body has a substantial interest if the business entity is the only business entity that:

- a. provides the needed service or product within the jurisdiction of the government entity;
- b. bids on the contract.

Voting on Budget

- a. The governing body of a governmental entity shall take a separate vote on any budget item specifically dedicated to a contract with a business entity in which a member of the governing body has a substantial interest.
- b. The affected member may not participate in the separate vote, but may vote on a final budget if;

- (1) The member has complied with this chapter; and
- (2) The matter in which the member is concerned has been resolved.

No Limitation on Common Law Remedies

- a. The penalties and remedies provided by this chapter do not limit common law remedies in tort, contract, or equity, including a suit for damages, injunction, or mandamus.
- b. The finding by a court of a violation under this chapter does not render an action of the governing body void unless the measure that was the subject of an action involving a conflict of interest would not have passed the governing body without the vote of the person who violated the chapter.

Open Meetings Act. Texas Government Code, Chapter 551 is commonly referred to as the TEXAS OPEN MEETING ACT. This article generally requires that every meeting of a governmental body must be open to the public and enumerates some exceptions to the requirement.

“Meeting” means a deliberation between a quorum of a governmental body, or between a quorum of a governmental body and another person, during which public business or public policy over which the governmental body has supervision or control is discussed or considered during which the governmental body takes formal action.

“Governmental Body” means every City Council in the State, and every deliberative body having rule or quasi-judicial power and classified as a department, agency, or political subdivision of a city.

“Deliberation” means a verbal exchange during a meeting between a quorum of a governmental body, or between a quorum of a governmental body and another person, concerning an issue within the jurisdiction of the governmental body or any public business.

A Posted Notice is required of a meeting of a City governmental body. Written notice of the date, hour, place, and subject of each meeting must be posted on a public bulletin board, located at a place convenient to the public in the City Hall for at least 72 hours proceeding the scheduled time of the meeting. Only those matters posted can be discussed and acted on by the governmental body.

Minutes are required to be prepared or a tape recording made of each open meeting.

Closed Meetings. The Texas Open Meetings Act does allow for closed or executive meetings on a few limited subjects. Closed meetings are allowed to discuss pending litigation, certain personnel matters, and the lease or acquisition of land. However, before a closed meeting can be held, a quorum of the governmental body must convene in an open meeting and the presiding officer publicly announce that a closed meeting will be held and identify the sections of the Open Meeting Act authorizing the closed meeting.

No final action, decision, or vote can be made in a closed meeting. All final actions, decisions, and votes must be made in open meetings. Further, the governmental body is required to keep a certified agenda of the matters discussed in the closed meeting and a record of any further action taken. The presiding officer must be made in open meetings. Further, the governmental body is required to keep a certified agenda of the matters discussed in the closed meeting and a record of any further action taken. The presiding officer must include an announcement at the beginning and end of the closed meeting indicating the time and place, and must certify that the agenda is a true and correct record of the proceedings. In lieu of maintaining a certified agenda, a tape recording of the closed meeting may be made. It is a misdemeanor offense to participate in a closed meeting where a certified agenda or tape recording is not kept. It is also a misdemeanor offense for any individual to make public such certified agenda or tape recordings unless directed by a court order. These certified agendas or tape recording must be preserved for at least two years.

Penalties. A fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500 or imprisonment in the County jail for not less than one month nor more than six months, or both fine and imprisonment, can be imposed for violating the provisions of the Open Meetings Act or conspiring to circumvent the provisions of the Open Meetings Act by meeting in a number less than a quorum for the purposes of secret deliberations.

Public Information Act. Texas Government Code, Chapter 552 is commonly referred to as the TEXAS PUBLIC INFORMATION ACT.

The Public Information Act applies to virtually all local and state governmental bodies, “private” entities that are supported by or that expend public funds and/or information held by “private” entities in the constructive possession of governmental bodies.

All information held by a governmental body must be released unless the information falls within one of the acts specific exceptions to disclosure.

Virtually all information in the physical possession of a governmental body is subject to the act.

Penalties. A fine of not less than $25 or more than $4,000 or confinement in County jail for not less than three days or more than three months, or both fine and confinement, can be imposed for violating the provisions of the Public Information Act.

A request for information that is received by a Board or Commission under the Public Information Act, should immediately file the written request to both the City Attorney and City Manager. The act requires that a Governmental body must request a decision from the Attorney General, within ten (10) calendar days after the date of receipt of request, prior to withholding information.

Meeting Attendance. A member of a Board, Commission or Committee that has a regular monthly or semi-monthly meeting shall be expected to maintain a suitable attendance record. It is important to keep in mind that your attendance is very important to the Board, Commission or Committee you are serving on and the City Council appointed you for your expertise. Certain Boards, Commissions or Committees may have attendance policies established by Ordinance or Statute. However, because your attendance is important, the City Council has also established the following attendance policy: If a board members is absent from more than twenty-five (25%) of the duly called meetings in any period of twelve consecutive months or absent from more than two (2) duly called meetings in any period of twelve consecutive months, whichever is greater, for any reason, other than a medical reason which prevents the member's attendance, will be subject to removal by City Council. The term "duly called meetings" includes all meetings of the board and all meetings of subcommittees of the board on which the board member serves. The Secretary of the Board, Commission or Committee is responsible for keeping track of the member's attendance. The Secretary shall provide the La Porte's City Council, through the City Secretary's Office, with a quarterly attendance report.

Working with City Staff. Each Board, Commission or Committee member is encouraged to communicate openly with the City Staff. Suggestions, opportunities, and constructive criticism are necessary for a proper relationship with the staff. However, each Board, Commission or Committee member is strongly encouraged to communicate with the appropriate department director assigned to that Board, Commission, and Committee or with the City Manager's Office. Contact with operational type people or individuals below the department director level is discouraged. The Director of Planning working with the Planning and Zoning Commission members and the Director of Public Works communicating with the Airport Advisory Board are examples of these relationships.

Reporting to the City Council. City Council is highly dependent on each Board, Commission or Committee to make recommendations and offer possible solutions to City projects and opportunities. All Boards, Commissions or Committee recommendations should be in a formal or written form. Of course, each Board, Commission or Committee member may from time-to-time want to visit informally with a Council member. This one-on-one informal communications is necessary, but to protect the integrity of the organization, the complete Council should be addressed in terms of the majority of the members of the Board, Commission or Committee.

MEETINGS

Role of the Chairman. The function of the chairman is to provide leadership to the group. He/She has certain duties and responsibilities that must be performed.

- a. Insure that the meeting is conducted in accordance with established rules.
- b. Maintain order and bring the group to a conclusion on the matters before it.

The Agenda. The agenda should always be prepared ahead of time and copies given to all Board, Commission or Committee members ahead of time if possible. If non-members attend the meeting, they should also be provided with an agenda.

The agenda should be prepared by the department director or staff person assigned to the Board, Commission or Committee. All Boards, Commissions and Committees are subject to the Open Meetings Act and their agenda must be properly posted in a public place, at least 72 hours prior to the meeting.

Generally, the first order of business on the agenda is the reading, correcting and passing of the minutes from the last meeting. Next are matters properly listed on the agenda, followed by reports from staff or committees.

Robert's Rules of Order. Meetings of Boards, Commissions and Committees are generally conducted under standard parliamentary rules as outlined in Robert's Rules of Order. This handbook contains a quick reference chart for frequently used Robert's Rules of Order.

Public Hearings. Public Hearings are open forums that allow the public an opportunity to express their opinion on a specific issue related to the City of La Porte. Public Hearings are generally conducted in the following manner;

- a. The Chairman of the Board or Commission formally opens the Public Hearing.
- b. Proponents (those in favor) of measure speak first.
- c. Opponents (those against) speak second.
- d. After hearing all who wish to comment on the issue, the proponents are allowed to give rebuttal and summarize their position, and then the Chairman formally closes the Public Hearing.
- e. Members of the Board, Commission or Committee may ask questions at anytime, of any witness. Board, Commission or Committee members are encouraged to ask questions even after the hearing is closed. After the Public Hearing is closed, members of the public may speak ONLY in answer to a question asked by a member of the Board, Commission or Committee.

- f. If a Public Hearing drew a large number of interested Citizens, a time limit for individual speakers may be set by the Board or Commission before the Public Hearing.
- g. The Chairman may use his/her judgment about how strictly this format is followed.

Quorum. A quorum is the minimum number of members needed to officially conduct business. The quorum is generally established by the ordinance, resolution, or other document that establishes the Board, Commission or Committee. Where no statement on the quorum number exists, a quorum is the majority of members.

Signing the Minutes for the Meeting. The Minutes of Decision-Making Boards and Commissions MUST be signed by either the Chairman and/or the Secretary once the Minutes are approved by the members of the Board or Commission.
